Suggested Resources

9th Grade English Research Project: To Kill a Mockingbird
All resources are also accessible on Learning Commons E-Resources webpage

GALE Databases

Online access to thousands of scholarly resources for research and learning.

- Log-In Password: warriors

- Suggested Database:
    - Opposing Viewpoints

- Tips:
    - Use the PowerSearch at the top of the page to cross search multiple databases at once.
    - When searching a database, check the small box that says "full text" to filter to full-text articles only

POWERLibrary – Pennsylvania's Online World of Electronic Resources

Provides access to thousands of articles, newspapers, a major encyclopedia, plus photographs, charts, maps, reference materials, and more. Includes

- Log-In ID: 20352000601642 / PIN: 1642

- Suggested Database:
    - EBSCO E-Books

- Tips:
    - Click "Help Me Choose" and select "High School Research"
    - When searching a database, check the small box that says "full text" to filter to full-text articles only

Salem Press

Online access to the history books in our Salem Press Reference Collection.

- Log-In ID: dvhs / password: warriors

- Suggested Titles:
    - Critical Insights: To Kill a Mockingbird
    - Civil Disobedience, Social Justice, Nationalism & Populism, Violent Demonstrations and Race Relations
    - Great Lives from History: African Americans
    - Milestone Documents in African American History
    - Working Americans: Social Movements
    - Racial & Ethnic Relations in America

Library Resource List: Research Paper – 9th Grade

A list of books and resources in our school's library available for your research paper.

- Log-In: Student ID and password. Log into the Destiny Library Catalog and select "Resource Lists" from the left side menu under the Catalog tab. Select list option "Research Paper – 9th Grade."

WebPath Express

Search trustworthy websites while filtering out questionable and irrelevant content.

- Log-In: Student ID and password. Log into the Destiny Library Catalog and look on the left side menu under the Catalog tab.