Saint Patrick's Day by Patrick

March 17th is Saint Patrick's Day, and you are going to learn some facts. The real St Patrick was born in Britain. Saint Patrick wiped all the snakes out of Ireland and to wear green Saint Patrick. Is the patron saint of Ireland. They have celebrations all over one of the biggest in New York City.

In Chicago the Chicago River is dyed green at 9 am in the morning.

The morning of the St Patrick's day parade. In London the London Eye is lit green for St. Patrick, the Empire State building, Rio De Janeiro the 98-foot statue Christ the Redeemer is lit up green also for St. Patrick's Day. In Paris France the Sacre Coeur Basilica Roman Catholic Church is lit in green for St Patrick's Day in Sydney Australia the Sydney Opera also lit green. Tokyo, Japan has a parade with costumes. Buenos Aires, Argentina holds one of the largest St Patrick's day parades in the world It goes blocks down streets.

And of course, Dublin Ireland has several festivals for the Patron Saint of Ireland.

Crocs

By Sekai Jones

Crocs in my opinion are the most comfortable shoe ever. I have three pairs: a yellow pair, Cobalt blue, and black. I put Jibbitz in every hole of my shoe. My dad gives crocs as presents when people come to our house. I wear my Crocs everywhere!

Since I like Crocs so much, I decided to have a debate about the shoes in my class. The question I asked was, what do you call the mode on Crocs when you wear the strap behind your heel? Is it sports mode or adventure mode?

I say adventure mode. I asked 21 people including myself what they thought. 17 people said sports mode and four people said adventure mode. So, I asked Dr. Google what it thought and said adventure strap, you no Google is always right, most of the time. I was partly correct.

International Women's Day

March 8th was International Women's Day. It's a holiday where people all around the world celebrate the women's right movement, bringing attention to issues like gender equality, and violence against women. It is usually associated with the colors green, purple, white. Purple stands for dignity and justice, green stands for hope and white stands for purity. The colors originated from the WSUP in the UK in 1908. International Women's Day is a good day to celebrate women!

Old Lady makes Buckingham Palace

By: Sekai

93-year-old Margaret Seamen makes a 6-foot model of the castle in London entirely out of wool. She has used her skill to raise over 120,000 dollars for charities. The piece features little people and guards enjoying the palace with trees around the landscape.

When I grow up,
I want to work at Nintendo. I want to be a person who works on the stories for games or a person who works on Animal Crossing games. I want to work at Nintendo because I really like their games and I think it would be fun to work there. I'd want to make stories for games because I think I'm very creative and I make stories for games in my mind all the time! If I can't do that though, I will work on Animal Crossing games because it is my favorite video game franchise. Some skills I need for this job are knowing how to code, creativity and reliability. I also just really like video games especially Nintendo games and I really want to learn how to code. That is why I would love to work at Nintendo.

Because of Winn-Dixie book and movie review by Patrick

This is why I like the book Winn Dixie. I think it is a really good book. because it is interesting, and it makes you want to read more. It gives me a reasonable amount of RC points. That is why I like the book Winn Dixie.

The movie, Because of Winn-Dixie is very good because the characters were good actors. They were exactly as I pictured in the book.

Happy Cow! By Scarlett

He is a cow who has a smiley face on his body! His unique cow print is in the shape of a smiley face for the rest of his life! Usually, male cows are used for meat, but Happy the cow had a unique pattern on his back, so they decided to keep him! Happy the cow is living his best life as a mascot at the farm where he was born!

BOOK REVIEW!! By Scarlett

-Dear Mr. Henshaw-

Mr. Henshaw is an author and Leigh Botts is a kid who writes to him.

Leigh writes to him every day, but Mr. Henshaw does not usually write back. Leigh does a book report and EVERY single time he does Mr. Henshaw books. Leigh is a huge fan of his! Every time he would write to him (mostly) he would put, number one fan, best reader, or other stuff.

When Mr. Henshaw didn't write back, he would get upset, and soon he got tired of it so he said, pooped reader, foey reader, or even more bad stuff.

If you are interested in this book and want to read it, you can get it in our library!

A Cat and Rabbit Co-Parent to Feed Each Other's Babies by Eleanor Bellomo

These two moms help each other parent with their babies, and I think that is awesome because usually people would be afraid to do that, and it would be cool to see what type of bond all the kittens and baby bunnies will have when they are older!

Lucky Sharks by Patrick

There is going to be five hundred baby sharks that are going to be released into the ocean. This is extremely good for the highly endangered sharks in Indonesia. Now, 44 aquariums are working together to help the sharks.

Someone That Inspires Me

By: Ally :) 14

There are many people that inspire me. The person I'm going to be writing about is my dad because he inspires me in a lot of ways.

He inspires me because he's good at fixing things. He is also good at doing things outside. I also think he is good at sports. My dad is especially good at basketball. I want to be as good as him at basketball. He is also good at softball. My dad is good at pitching and hitting. He is also good at hitting home runs. I want to be able to hit like him even though I do hit well, he hits better.

I've grown up with my dad, so everything he did I thought was cool and inspiring. The main thing that inspired me when I was younger was him starting his truck with his different car, and him not feeling pain. He would be cutting the grass and little pebbles would hit him, and he wouldn't feel any pain. It makes me really fascinated. I want to be able to be good with cars. I found it inspiring because he started his truck so easily. He also did it fast and well.

He has taught me so many things about cars. He is the reason I really like cars. He has taught me names of a lot of different cars. My dad has also taught me how to play softball. He taught me how to play catcher, catch pop ups, and grounders. My dad is the reason I really like softball and cars.

DVE-News/TV Reporters Question Chief Stewart

The reporters headed down to Eastern Pike Regional Police Department as they were invited by Chief Chad Stewart. We were given a tour of the entire facility. We got to sit in the police SUV's and saw other police vehicles, the fingerprint station, the holding cell, all the equipment they use. We got to use the Virtual Reality equipment that is used for officer empathy training. We learned about the officer's gear, different medical materials, riot gear, bullet proof vests and handcuffs, among others. There was so much to see and learn.

The DVE-News/TV reporters set out to interview Mrs. Sandra Burd, Transportation Manager and Mrs. Dawn Irwin, Bus Driver for Rohrer Bus Service. When the interview began, we discovered that Rohrer was established in 2010. Rohrer Bus Services are a part of Rohrer Bus headquarters in Duncannon, PA. Although Mrs. Burd is the Transportation Manager for this area now, she did start out as a bus driver, and was one for about 20 years. She felt it was the best job for parents who wanted to be on the same school schedule.
