

Junior Erika Lipari is beginning to make her mark at Delaware Valley High School. Lipari recently took 1st place at FBLA Regionals in Business Ethics. She also serves as the assistant to the Regional president. She is a consistent member of the high honor roll list as well. Lipari is a member of FBLA, Political Awareness Club, Student Council and Orchestra. “Being involved has allowed me the opportunity to socialize with many new people,” she said. “I have become more acquainted with my peers as well as the faculty members in our school.” She helps to raise money for the humane society, Student Council, food drives, and the United Way’s Day of Caring. Also, Lipari volunteers at many other worthwhile events. “I would like to be remembered as an opinionated, ambitious, genuinely kind and friendly person who is humorous and enjoyable to be around,” Lipari concluded.

Senior wrestling standout Martin Strenk recently signed with Williams College, a Division III school located in Williamstown, Mass. Delaware Valley’s talented student-athlete is a four-year member of the varsity football (captain), wrestling and lacrosse teams. He is also a member of Student Council and Teens Against Tobacco Use. He also finds time to volunteer for Relay for Life, canned food drive, CROP walk and local highway clean-ups. “I would love to be remembered as a person who worked hard to get what I got,” he said.
