

Delaware Valley junior field hockey player Grace Farrell has been making her mark on the hockey field and in the classroom. Farrell is currently one of the varsity captains of the field hockey team and is the team's leading scorer with 10 goals this season. She can play either the right or left wing on offense for the Warriors. Off the field, Farrell is a High Honor Roll recipient for three straight years. Furthermore, she is a member of Student Council and Students Against Destructive Decisions. "The more I get involved in school-related activities, the more accomplished I feel," Farrell said. "It feels good to make a positive change in my school." Farrell is also a volunteer for the United Way's Day of Caring and serves as a camp counselor at the children's field hockey camp. "I want to be remembered as the girl with a great personality," she said. "I've learned that in high school you can open so many doors with a smile on your face."

Delaware Valley soccer standout Christian Henry has recently been selected to the Lackawanna 1st team all-league and has been named Player of the Year in the same league. So far this season, Henry has 24 goals and six assists. Three of his goals were game winners for the Warrior soccer team. He is one of the captains of the team. Henry is also a member of Student Council and FBLA. "Being involved enabled me to interact with different students and teachers while gaining appreciation of what DV has to offer its students," Henry said. During his free time, Henry is an Eastern Pike Soccer volunteer. "I want to be remembered as a figure of how a student-athlete should hold him or herself," he concluded.

Dominique Marcial, a senior at Delaware Valley High School, serves as a role model for her peers. Marcial is a member of National Honor Society, Junior Historians, Mu Alpha Theta, Peer Buddies, Relay for Life, and varsity tennis and track and field. "School related activities have allowed me to leave an impact on my school through competitions, volunteer work, and academics. I have also met some of my closest friends through school activities," she said. Marcial is an AP Scholar with Honors and a high honor roll recipient. She has been the student of the month every year she has been in high school. She has an impressive 4.6 grade point average. "I wish to be remembered as a distinct individual who left an abiding footprint for future students to follow," Marcial stated.
