

Dan Favaro, a senior at Delaware Valley High School, is a versatile student who takes pride in his academics. Favaro is a member of Teens Against Tobacco Use, Student Council, Mu Alpha Theta and National Honor Society. He is also the managing editor of his school newspaper the Del.Aware. He has consistently been on the high honor roll and was recently recognized as an AP Scholar. “You begin to realize that you are nothing without the people around you,” he said. Favaro is also a member of both the varsity football and wrestling teams. He is also an avid volunteer. He has donated his time to the GAIT riding center, Highway Clean-up crew, United Way’s Day of Caring, Relay for Life and the Autism Awareness 5K. “I want to be remembered as a hard worker for my family, for my friends, and for myself,” Favaro added.

---

Girls varsity volleyball player Taylor Braunagel has been recognized for her outstanding play this fall. She was picked for the Wyoming Valley Conference All-Star team. Scranton Times All-Region team, Times Leader All-Region team and finally picked by PVCA for the All-State team.