

Josiah DeVizia, a junior at Delaware Valley High School, is a standout competitor in the school's Scholastic Bowl team. DeVizia helped the team win the Scholastic Bowl Championship within their local league. The team also won the Northern Pennsylvania Championship for Delaware Valley. He is also a member of National Honor Society, Science Olympiad, Computer Programming Club and Mu Alpha Theta. DeVizia also serves as a math tutor. "Being involved has pushed me to learn more and soak up as much knowledge as possible in order to excel at my competitions," he said. In his free time, he volunteers for the Gospel Ministries to Children and Milford Bible Church's "The Outlet." "I have been in volunteer work my whole life," he said. "I would say that it has shaped my character to a higher standard."

---

Senior Katie Murphy has been selected to the Academic All-State field hockey team. Players selected for the award must maintain a 92% grade point average while being one of the best field hockey players in the state. Murphy was Delaware Valley's center mid this past season. According to head coach Lindsay Sabo, Murphy was always assigned to defend the other team's toughest opponent. She also gave the team a great offensive push.