

Danielle Misiaszek, a senior at Delaware Valley High School, knows what hard work is all about. Misiaszek has been recognized as an AP Scholar and has won a Scholastic Art Gold Key. She is also a member of Mu Alpha Theta, National Honor Society, Student Council, and the Drama Club. As a senior member of the Drama Club, Misiaszek was able to take a trip to New York City, along with other senior members, to see the Broadway hit “Newsies.” She will be attending Stonehill College to major in math this coming fall.

Jason Clader, a senior volleyball player at Delaware Valley High School, was recently named to the Wyoming Valley Conference 1st team All-Star team. Clader was a captain on this year’s team and led the team to a District II championship title. He has also been recognized as a Student of the Month at DV. Also a soccer player, Clader has proved to be a well-rounded student athlete for the Warriors. “Being involved has taught me teamwork and how in order to achieve goals you have to be able to work with others,” he said. Clader would like to be remembered as a hard worker and someone who was willing to do the hard work that was required to be successful. Clader will be attending Lebanon Valley College in the fall.
