Legacy

To be considered for induction into the Delaware Valley High School Hall of Fame Legacy Wing, nominees must, over a period of many years, have dedicated their professional careers to serving others. Membership into the Legacy Wing is reserved for those who have become inspirations to the people and communities they have served. Special consideration will be given to those whose work has led to the betterment of the Delaware Valley School District, most importantly its students. Nominees for the Legacy Wing are not required to be Delaware Valley graduates.
