Reflections from the Principal

I can't believe that December is coming to an end. I want to thank everyone for pitching in and doing their part to keep everyone safe during this flare up we are having in the pandemic. Please keep your kids home as soon as they begin to show symptoms and get tested. This will greatly help mitigate the spread in the community and drastically reduce the number of students that need to be quarantined. Our children will truly be benefiting from all of these efforts and sacrifices.

In December, I was able to visit the classrooms to continue the Principal Reading Visits. We have read If You Take a Mouse to the Movies, Click Clack Ho! Ho!, Ho!, and Grumpy Badger's Christmas. For the upper grades, I have been reading Charlotte's Web with the Third Grade, Island of the Blue Dolphins with the Fourth Grade, and Owls in the Family with the Fifth Grade. These are classic novels that all elementary students should experience. We read portions of these novels on a weekly basis.

While all of the buses basically arrive to the school right at dismissal, and been pulling out right around 3:40, we must be prepared for weather delays and closures. Please have an emergency plan ready in case we experience some form of change to our usual schedule. Also, while we have had very few bus referrals, but please remind your children about safe and appropriate conduct on the bus. I know this is a repeat from last month's newsletter, but looking

PTA

A huge Thank YOU to the PTA for hosting the breakfast with Santa. It was well attended and enjoyed by all. I know that Santa enjoyed meeting everyone and hopes to see everyone next year.

Happy Holidays!!!

If there is anything I learned from this year is that life is a gift and time is the most precious commodity on Earth. Even though we are faced with unique challenges this holiday season, please be creative and find ways to spend time with your loved ones. Build special memories that will last a lifetime!! I wish you nothing but peace, joy, love, and happiness this holiday season!!
